

Bank accounts of Butt Sweets frozen

The Regional Tax Office II recovered Rs2 million after freezing bank accounts of famous Butt Sweets. According to details, the tax officials had frozen the bank accounts in Bank Alfalah at the Hall Road and recovered the tax. It may be noted that there was an outstanding advance tax of Rs2.8 million against Butt Sweets, which has a chain of outlets throughout the city.

Copyright Business Recorder, 17/6/2017