

Manually filed returns: field formations directed to provide information

The Federal Board of Revenue (FBR) has directed field formations to immediately provide information about the total number of manually filed returns received as on November 30, 2017. According to the FBR's instructions issued to the all Chief Commissioners of LTUs/RTOs/CRTOs, the board is seeking information of returns received, entered and yet to be entered manually in the system.

The following information is immediately be required for Finance Division: Total Number of Manual Returns received as on November 30, 2017; total number of Manual Returns Entered in the System as on November 30, 2017 and total numbers of manual Returns yet to be entered in the System and returns received as on November 30, 2017.

Copyright Business Recorder, 2017